Obituary

Mary Jane Robinson was born February 22, 1926 to Walter Meyers and Pearlle Brown Myers. She was simply known by all as “MaMa.”

Born in Holly Hill, SC and educated in the Mt. Olive School system, she left home at the age of eighteen to live with her aunt and to work in a restaurant. A few years later, she met her husband, Tony Robinson, who was a military man. From this union they were blessed with eight children.

Mary was a great cook and Sunday dinners were something the family always looked forward to. Everyone knew you could get a good down home meal at Mary’s house. She loved her soaps, especially All My Children and General Hospital. She also loved game shows such as Jeopardy and Wheel of Fortune, which were her favorites. She was also an avid sports fan who loved basketball, football, and boxing. Most of all she was about family. Family meant the most to her, she didn’t care about anything else just as long as everyone got along and cared for one another.

At 12:32 a.m., on Monday, December 3, 2012, Mary departed this life after a long illness at Queens Hospital Center.

She leaves to mourn her cherished memory: three daughters, Diane, Geneva, Pearlle Mae (her husband Artie); her two sons, Melvin, and Derrick (his wife Naketa); her fourteen grandchildren, Crystal, (her husband Barry), Antwyn, (his wife Tina), Shelton, Monique, Genea, (her husband Leslie), Richard, and Erick, (his wife Kyrsten), Ishmel, (his wife Burgundie), Melvin Jr., Malik, Danielle, Melissa, Chanelle, and Dominique; twenty-three great grandchildren; and a host of relatives, cousins and friends.

She also leaves behind some very special people dear to her heart, Justine Dash, Raymond Robinson, Dorothy Henderson, and Vanessa Pritchett.

Preceding Mary in death was her husband, Tony Robinson, her two sons, Tommy and Michael, and one daughter, Carolyn Robinson, her two sisters, Lula Mae Keitt, Maybelle Williams, and her two brothers, Prezzy (aka Babe) and Willie (aka Bubba).

Mary Jane Robinson, you will Truly be missed. Love Always,
Your devoted family

*I'd like the memory of me
to be a happy one
I'd like to leave an afterglow
of smiles
When life here is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
whispering softly down the ways.
Of happy times and laughing times
and bright summer days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve
to dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave
when life here is done.*
