Obituary

Mrs. Delray McDonald was born in Winston Salem, North Carolina, daughter to Mr. Asbury Adams and Mrs. Bessie Felder.

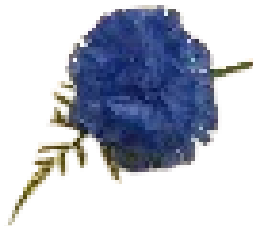

Delray Adams resided in New York City in 1949. Her first position was office cleaner. Delray gave birth to her first daughter, Janie Adams. Then, she met Sergeant Mr. Roy Calvin McDonald. They wedded and this union produced two children, Kim McDonald and Loretta McDonald. She was a supportive mother and wife.

Later she gained a position working in the Fire Department. She decided she wanted to help the sick. Delray settled as a Health Aid and that is where she worked and retired from.

Mrs. McDonald was a very stern and strict woman and didn't take any mess. She loved to give her heart and do whatever she could for others. Delray was high spirited and loved to make people happy. She was the type of person that would "put you in your place if upset".

Delray McDonald is at home now. She was preceded in death by her (Mother) Bessie Felder, (Father) Asbury Adams, (Brothers) Moses and Robert Adams, (Sister) Bessie Lee Adams, (Daughters) Loretta McDonald and Janie Adams.

She leaves behind to cherish her memories: daughter, Kim McDonald; grandsons, Shonda Adams, Gary Crosson and Peyisai Adams; granddaughters, Tamisha, Destiny, Chyna, Dynasty, Diani, and Dominae; great-grandsons, Cameron, Tyron, Syire, Peyisiai, Dayisai and Malik; her only great-great-granddaughter, Trinity Rose; and a host of extended family members and friends. A very special thanks to Ms. Che'Che Evans.

My Mother's Love

Don't cry for me Now I'm home So happy and free yes I'm looking Down on you smiling and cheers to be so free.

I may not know you all but yes

I'm smiling down on you all

My love was strong my love was true and yes my love is free. I say again don't cry because I'm free. One day we will meet again then we all will smile with cheer. Resting to sure my love is true you did not want it but it was true. I'm sleeping now my love still is true. I love all of you and this is true. Keep God in your hearts and always with all the cheers.

*God Bless Always Love,
Ms. McDonald*

Acknowledgement

The family acknowledges with deep appreciation all acts of kindness extended to them during this bereavement hour. God bless you for all your thoughtfulness and concern.
