Obituary

Leslie A. Cameron died on November 24, 2012. Leslie was affectionately known as Les, Broke American, Brother and Mango Valley Boy.

He was born in St. Mary, Jamaica, W.I. He was the second youngest child of Cora and Adolphus Anderson. His surviving family include his son Lester, his brothers and sisters, Victor, Morris, Amy, Laura and Louise.

Leslie was a beautiful little boy, inquisitive, with nice bright eyes. Aunt May found him so engaging and delightful, that she adopted him at an early age.

He migrated to America and Agnes May Cameron, his Mum and Leslie lived in Harlem, New York.

Leslie served in the United States Army for twelve years, after which he embarked on a career in Telecoms and Engineering. Prior to retiring, he worked with City College.

Leslie was a kind and quiet man. He was intelligent, thoughtful and witty. He was so much looking forward to completing the family tree, reconnecting with family and retiring in Jamaica.

Unfortunately Leslie's life was cut short by a series of illnesses. It just wasn't to be.

We celebrate his life by treating him now, with the dignity and respect he deserves.

Rest in Peace Dearest Leslie, you will be missed by all your Family, Friends and all those who knew you.

Be Not Afraid

*“Be not afraid” the Master said,
“I’m with you always,” so instead
Of shouldering my cross alone,
I place my burden on His own.
For I’m not nearly strong enough,
To make it when the going’s rough,
And it’s a comfort to believe
“You need but ask Me to receive”
Handed down to me through time,
These blessed words of hope,
and I’m Renewed in spirit to recall
“Am I not Father to you all?”
One day these feet shall cease to roam,
Earth’s but my temporary home
I was in truth for Heaven made,
And so I shall not be afraid.*
