The Obituary

Angela A. Williams was born on August 13, 1958 in Spanish Town, St. Catherine, Jamaica, West Indies. She was the first child of the late Gloria Cameron and Albert Augustus Senior, both of Spanish Town, St. Catherine, Jamaica. Angela spent most of her early days with her loving grandmother Daphne May Chambers, who raised her to be a kind and caring person. She often told Angela, aka “Little Cherry”, where there is a need, fill it. Angela was a star student at Crescent Primary School and continued academic excellence at Dinthill Technical High School in Spanish Town where she graduated with honors in June 1976. She earned her degree in Accounts at the College of Arts, Science and Technology (CAST) in Kingston, JA and landed her first job at Price Water House Accounting Firm in Kingston, JA.

Angela excelled in track and field but her love was dance and theatre. She was the dance captain of the Cultural Theatre of Spanish Town in the mid 1970’s. Under the direction of renowned dancer and choreographer the Hon. Carlton “Jackie” Guy and drama director, Oliver Samuels, Angela performed ballet, modern dance, cultural folk dance and plays, island wide.

Angela later married her childhood sweetheart Michael Williams and became the proud mother of her only child Tannese Travers, who she dedicated her life to and instilled the love of Jesus Christ. Angela migrated to the United States in 1980 to New York City to become a modern dance performer in a few off Broadway plays. She later chose to settle in Maryland because it offered a top rated school system for her daughter. She finally called New Jersey home in June, 2000 and worked as an Executive Secretary to the partners at KPMG Tax and Auditing Firm in Short Hills, New Jersey for twelve years. Her love for people and healing spirit guided her to become a certified Massage Therapist, Reiki Master and owner of Tranquil Massage and Bodyworks in Bloomfield, New Jersey.

Angela passed away peacefully in her home with her daughter, son-in-law and aunt by her side on December 6, 2012. She is survived by her daughter, Tannese Natalie Travers, her son-in-law, Frederick I. Travers; her grandson, Joshua Frederick Travers; her granddaughter, Natalie Angel Travers; her sisters, Catherine, Barbara and Claudette; her brothers, George and Everton; her aunts, Myrtle, Veronica and Helene; and an abundance of nieces, nephews, family and friends. Her warm heart and smile will forever be held close to our hearts.

Psalm 27

4 One thing I have desired of the Lord,
That will I seek:
That I may dwell in the house of the Lord
All the days of my life,
To behold the beauty of the Lord,
And to inquire in His temple.
5 For in the time of trouble
He shall hide me in His pavilion;
In the secret place of His tabernacle
He shall hide me;
He shall set me high upon a rock.
6 And now my head shall be lifted up above my enemies all around me;
Therefore I will offer sacrifices of joy in His tabernacle;
I will sing, yes, I will sing praises to the Lord.
7 Hear, O Lord, when I cry with my voice!
Have mercy also upon me, and answer me.
8 When You said, "Seek My face,"
My heart said to You, "Your face, Lord, I will seek."
9 Do not hide Your face from me;
Do not turn Your servant away in anger;
You have been my help;
Do not leave me nor forsake me,
O God of my salvation.
10 When my father and my mother forsake me,
Then the Lord will take care of me.
11 Teach me Your way, O Lord,
And lead me in a smooth path, because of my enemies.
12 Do not deliver me to the will of my adversaries;
For false witnesses have risen against me,
And such as breathe out violence.
13 I would have lost heart, unless I had believed
That I would see the goodness of the Lord
In the land of the living.
14 Wait on the Lord;
Be of good courage,
And He shall strengthen your heart;
Wait, I say, on the Lord!
