Obituary

Lizzie Mae Scott was born in Georgetown, GA on April 5, 1933 to the late James Homer and Susie Mae Scott and was the oldest of eight siblings. Lizzie departed this life on December 8, 2012 at the New Vista Nursing Home in Newark, NJ.

Lizzie attended elementary and high school at the Kaigler Training School in Georgetown, GA. While in Georgetown she was a member of Davis Chapel AME Church where she was an usher and sang in the choir.

In April 1955, Lizzie left Georgetown, GA and moved to Newark, NJ where she became a member of the Gethsemane Baptist Church. In September 1973, she joined the Mt. Sinai Baptist Church where she was an active member of the Missionaries, The Floral Club, The Senior Choir and MSBC Mass Choir.

Lizzie had various jobs before starting her career at Mailing Services, in Hillside, NJ where she was a supervisor. She retired after twenty-five years of service in 1996. After retirement, she worked part time in food services at several elementary schools in Hillside, NJ until 2007.

Mae as she was affectionately known by many enjoyed many hours talking on the telephone and taking trips visiting family and friends near and far.

Mae leaves to cherish her memory: three sisters, Julia Scott of Irvington, NJ, Barbara Flagg of Hampton,VA and Florine Conte of Mesa, AZ; four brothers, James Scott, Calvin Scott, Marion Scott all of Newark, NJ and Ulysses Scott of Irvington, NJ: Aunt Mae aka "Granny" also leaves loving memories to be cherished by ten nieces and nephews, seventeen great nieces and nephews and a host of relatives and friends.

As John 3:16 states: For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but, have everlasting life, we love you Mae, Aunt Mae, Granny you will be missed.

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me, I want no rites in a gloom filled room, Why cry for a soul set free? Miss me a little-but not too long, and not with your head bowed low. Remember the love that we once shared. Miss me-but let me go. For this is a journey that we all must take, And each must go alone. It's all part of the Master's plan, A step on the road to home. When you are lonely and sick at heart, Go to the friends we know. Laugh at the things we use to do Miss me-but let me go.
