Life Reflections

Darlene Brendalee Brown Moose was born January 7, 1945 in Egg Harbor, NJ, the daughter of the late Alice Teagle Brown and Charles Brown. The family moved to Linden, NJ where Darlene attended public school and graduated from Linden High School in 1963.

At the age of fourteen, Darlene accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior and was baptized by the late Apostle Arturo Skinner at the Deliverance Evangelistic Center, Newark, NJ. Darlene was a member of the 500 Voices of Deliverance Choir and was a first row soprano singer. In 1965, Darlene was united in holy matrimony to Benjamin MacMoose and to this union three children were born.

In 1980, Darlene joined Bibleway Deliverance Center under the pastorate of Bishop Wayne L. Johnson and served faithfully on the Missionary Board, Radio Guild, Pastor's Aide and Women's Ministry. Darlene served God faithfully every Sunday morning praising God in her favorite seat (center aisle, second row, first seat). She supported the ministry and gave tithes and offerings religiously and unsparingly.

Darlene graduated from Nursing School and worked as a Registered Nurse at Trinitas Hospital in Elizabeth, NJ for twenty-four years. She retired as a R.N. from the Orange Board of Education in 2010.

Affectionately known as "Dante," Darlene was a beautiful, faithful, dedicated lady of the Lord who loved God, her family, and her church. She was the matriarch of her household and had a splendid personality for hospitality. She was blessed with unsurpassed culinary art skills and cooked for the entire family and neighborhood. She had a beautiful, outgoing personality; she loved people and was loved by all who knew her.

Darlene had a splendid rapport with her children, grandchildren, siblings, co-workers, church members and everyone she met. After attending two glorious church services on last Sunday, she was suddenly called from labor to reward and went home to be with the Lord on December 18, 2012. She will be sorely missed, but we rejoice in knowing that while she is absent from the body, she is present with the Lord.

Darlene was predeceased by: her mother and brother, Terrence Brown; and leaves to await the coming of the Lord, two daughters, Sherri Lynn Moose of Plainfield, NJ, Kimberly Ann Moose of Edison, NJ; two sons, Lewis Moose (Nicole) of Mahopac, NY, Michael Caughman of Los Angeles, CA; four sisters, Wayneitha Mallette (Alvin) of Piscataway, NJ, Thomasina Tucker of Easton, PA, Ramona Neal (Charles, Sr.) of Dallas, NC, Vickie Brown of Minetola, NJ, Vernon P. Brown of Orange, NJ and Bishop Wayne L. Johnson of Roselle, NJ; one sister-in-law, Tayae Brown of Rahway, NJ; seven grandchildren, Shane-Lewis, Maia-Kimberly, Rayne-Darlene, Anthony, Nicholas, Joshua, and Haley; and a host of other relatives and friends.
