Life Reflections

Rosie “Sister” Moorero was born on November 27, 1933 in Valls creek, West Virginia, one of eight children born to Henry, Sr. and Agnes Tartt.

Rosie graduated from Liberty High School in Williamson, West Virginia in 1951.

She was united in marriage to George Moorero on October 16, 1954.

Rosie left West Virginia and moved to New Jersey in 1964 where she was employed by JP Stevens High School in Edison, New Jersey for several years.

Rosie was a loving mother and loyal friend who would open her home to anyone who was in need. She was loved dearly by all that knew her. She made everyone so comfortable in her home that they adopted her as family. She loved family gatherings, cooking, eating out and attending church. She was a faithful member of Holy Mountain Church of God in Christ since 1978, where she ushered and was a member of the choir. She also served on the Mother’s Board. Sunday dinners with family was a tradition which she cherished and looked forward to.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Henry Tartt, Sr. and Agnes Tartt; sister, Annie Bee Tartt-Williams and three brothers, Robert, Eugene and Henry Tartt, Jr.

Rosie Moorero peacefully departed this life on Wednesday, December 19, 2012 at JFK Hospital in Edison, New Jersey surrounded by a host of family members.

She leaves to cherish her memories: her children, Teresa (Alfredo) Beckford of Somerset, New Jersey, Sheri Moorero of Edison, New Jersey, Rodney (Tracy) Tartt of Canal Winchester, Ohio, Katrina Barksdale of Plainfield, New Jersey, Shaun Moorero of Columbus, Ohio and Yolanda Moorero of Edison, New Jersey; her brother, David (Mary) Tartt of Columbus, Ohio; her sisters, Agnes Scott of Columbus, Ohio and Minerva (James) Coleman of Magnolia, Delaware; nine grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and dear friends.

Lovingly submitted,
The Family
