Jesse Day known by his friends as "Pete" was born on June 12, 1937, in New York City. He was raised in Virginia where he attended school until his graduation. He then relocated back to New York. Soon there after he enlisted in the Air Force and served his country.

He met and married his first wife, Lorraine and from this union he had two children, Charlene and Richard. In later years, his second wife, Carol bore him another son, Daniel. Jesse was employed by the M.T.A. until his retirement. He was a hard worker, loving and devoted husband and nurturing father to his family. His greatest pastime was his love of fishing.

During the last twenty-five years he resided on St. Nichols Terrace, where he had many good friends, especially Elizabeth Carde who was his close companion during his last years.

Jesse was predeceased by his mother, Clara, his brother, Bobby and his sister, Barbara.

He leaves behind: his children, his cousin, Lenard (Junie); his wife, Juanita and their children, Gus, Sara and Christina. Jesse also leaves a long list of friends to innumerable to be named. The family extends a special thank you to Ms. Jacqueline Matos, Gene Williams and his wife, Linda for all the help and support they have provided.

Hterglow

I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when day is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave behind,
When the day is done.
