Obituary

Joseph Dornel McCants was born on May 13, 1963 in Hemingway, SC. He was the only child born to the late Betsy McCants and Doc McFadden.

As a young child, he migrated to The Bronx, New York with his mother. This is where he received his higher education at Evander Childs High School.

As a teenager, “Mousey” as he was known became intensely involved with music. Realizing his passion for music he began a journey which took him on a thirty year career as a Disk Jockey. Years later he changed his professional name to D.J. King Joe. When not mixing his turn tables at an event he was often seen riding his bike which he loved to do.

On the evening of December 21, 2012, he unexpectedly departed this life.

He leaves to mourn: two daughters, Eboni Lindsey and Keyshawna McCants both of New York, NY; one uncle, Joseph McCants of Wilmington, DE; two aunts, Genevieve Pressley and Barbara Whitehead both of the Bronx, NY; and a host of family and friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call*

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.*

*Good friends, good times,
a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
