Obituary

Rosalie Webster, affectionately known as “The Rose”, was a devoted mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, cousin and friend. She was very supportive of those she loved. She was born in Harlem Hospital, New York, on October 25, 1939 to the late Jessie and Elizabeth Kitchener.

Rosalie was raised and educated in the Bronx, New York, graduating from Morris High School in June, 1957. In her later years, Rosalie attended York College, where she received an Associates Degree. She was united in holy matrimony to the late Horace Curry. From that union, three children were born: Kevin Horace Curry, Deborah Elizabeth McInnis and the late Brian Nathaniel Curry.

Rosalie loved her family and was very supportive of them whenever they needed her. In fact, she was supportive even when they did not ask for her support. She always stepped up to the plate when she saw the need. She was also very devoted and active in her church, “First Baptist Mandarin”, Jacksonville, Florida where she was a member following her move to St. Augustine, Florida in 2005. She served as a choir member, singing for both services every Sunday. She also volunteered in other ministries in the church, doing whatever she was asked to do.

Rosalie was employed with the New York Transit Authority for twenty years, starting as a token booth clerk and retiring as a supervisor. After she retired, Rosalie enjoyed traveling and decided to move to St. Thomas, V.I., where she lived for several years. During her time there, she developed several friendships. After moving back to the United States, she has maintained those friendships over the years.

Rosalie transitioned from her earthly mortality, to eternal life on December 19, 2012. She leaves to celebrate her life: her son, Kevin Horace Curry; daughter, Deborah Elizabeth McInnis; three siblings, sister, Patricia K. Selby (Robert), brother, Michael Kitchener (Theda), sister, Pamela Kitchener; goddaughter, Kim Martin (Stephen); grandchildren, great-grandchild, nieces, nephews; and a host of relatives and friends.

*I've made it home, I'm well with God
Don't talk about what could have been done,
It's over and it is done,*

*Please don't talk about my struggles,
Just know God brought me through*

*For all the things, I could not do.
It was worth just being with you.*

*So with the love that's left,
Thank God, my soul's now resting.
Thank God, for I've been blessed.
Thank God for all who loved me.
And praise God who loved me best!*

*Don't spend too much time in mourning,
Tears are for the sad.
I left to be with Jesus,
And this should make me glad.*

Acknowledgements

A special thanks to Kim, Stephen and Shar Dey Martin for their endless support of Rosalie during her illness. The family gratefully acknowledges all expressions of kindness and sympathy during the illness and death of our loved one.
