Obituary

Azzie Terry, known to family as “Ree”, was born on September 6, 1933, to Murit and Martha Sales in the Marion County Town of Buena Vista, Georgia.

Azzie was united in marriage to the late Reno Terry on December 26, 1959, and moved to New Jersey. From this union two children were born, a son, Marcus Dwight Terry (deceased) and a daughter, Janice Faye Terry. Azzie worked as a cafeteria worker and in a factory for several years before the birth of her children. Azzie’s love for her family was only matched by her love for Jehovah. Her dedication to Jehovah was symbolized on June 17, 1969. She received much comfort, strength and joy from reading the Bible daily and telling others about Jehovah’s great works and promises for the future. Those who knew her will remember her most for her speaking boldly about her faith, her willingness to help all she could, and her sense of humor.

Upon her death Azzie leaves behind to mourn: daughter, Janice Terry; and a host of other relatives and lifetime friends with special mention, Mattie Sales, Sylvia Sales, and Casondra Sales and Tracy and Constance Nugent, all of which loved her and will miss her.
