Reflections of Life

Mr. James Edward Clark (some of you may have known him as Red) was born December 16, 1944, in Scotland Neck, NC Halifax County to Allene Mitchell Clark and James Edward Clark, Sr. He was a member of Antioch Baptist Church in Scotland Neck, North Carolina. He was educated at Dawson Elementary School also in North Carolina where he had to leave at an early age to work on a farm to help his parents provide for his siblings. He met his first and only love Sue Carrie Clark in his younger years and married her in 1963.

James left North Carolina at twenty-two years of age and moved to Paterson, New Jersey; where he and Sue had their first born Christopher Clark on November 28, 1965 and their second born Patricia Clark on June 27, 1967 – AND THEN THEIR JOURNEY BEGAN...

James worked several jobs to provide for his own family, as any man of his calibre would have. He worked at Paterson Shade for a few years, Dorwood Industries in Denville, New Jersey for sixteen years as a Carpenter and fifteen years at a carwash in Paterson, New Jersey. He was hardworking, loving, gentle and strong. And he showed just how strong he was even in his last days. James loved his family and was deeply devoted to every one of his family members. He was the grandfather of Patrick Clark, Tyler Clark, Sean Higgins, Kahlief Lee, Tyshon Lee, Christopher Clark, Jr., Romean Clark and Javonna Clark. He has four great grandchildren, Yada Lee, Nyeira Lee, Quanasia Lee and Teyonne Lee.

James was preceded in death by his mother, Aileen Mitchell Clark and father, James Edward Clark, Sr. his sisters, Arlene Clark Mouzone, Velma Ruth Faison, Mary Clark Morgan, Bessie Lee Clark Hinton and his brother, Jessie Lee Clark.

He leaves behind: his son, Christopher Clark; daughter, Patricia Clark; daughter-in-law, Chernell Lee Clark, grandchildren, great grandchildren; his loving sister (last one of his siblings) Ruth Taylor of Rocky Mount, North Carolina who won the bet; a special niece, Connie Clark who always stood by his side all the way; his niece, Carolyn Clark Brantley, a wonderful brother-in-law, Johnnie Clark and Alloyd Clark of Paterson, New Jersey, Boot Clark of Clifton, New Jersey; sisters-in-law, Pearlle Hall of Scotland Neck, North Carolina and Jean Morgan of Newark, New Jersey; a great nephew, Linwood Clark of Paterson, New Jersey; great friends, Windell McGuire, Pat Wade, James Lawrence, Richard Pittman, Luther Hendley all of Paterson, New Jersey; and a host of cousin, nieces and nephews.

You will be deeply missed
