Obituary

Jahim Lamont Campbell was born on April 24, 1988 at National Medical Center in Hempstead, NY to Michelle Denise Campbell and Ming Carson. He attended pre-school in Brooklyn, NY; he then moved to Queens, NY and attended elementary school at P.S. 14, Junior High School at I.S. 61 and John Bowne High School.

Jahim was known to his loved ones as Sunshine and to his friends as Kidko. His hobby was music and rapping. Jahim was loved by many. He was kind, loving, sweet and caring. He had a special way of giving love to everyone he met through a smile, a deed or an encouraging word. He will be missed dearly but, we also know that we will see him again. Let's not mourn Jahim's death. Let's celebrate his life through the love he was able to share so freely.

The family would like to say:

God has given us the strength in our time of sorrow....

Jahim departed on January 26, 2013. To My Family and Friends

When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not there to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes all filled with tears for me;
I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today.
While thinking of the many things we didn't get to say,
I know how much you love me, as much as I love you.
And each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too.
But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand that an Angel came and called my name and took me by the hand.
And, he said my place was ready in heaven far above.
And that I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love.
I thought of all the yesterdays, the good ones and the bad.
I thought of all the love we shared and all the fun we had.
If I could relive yesterday, just even for a while,
I'd say good-bye and kiss you and maybe see you smile.
But when I walked through heaven's gates, I felt so much at home. When God looked down and smiled at me from His great golden throne;
You've been so faithful, so trusting and so true.
Though there were times you did some things you knew you shouldn't do.
But, you have been forgiven and now at last you're free.
So won't you come and take my hand and share my life with me.
So, when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart.
For every second you think of me, I'm right here, forever in your heart.
