“Where Our Sympathy Expresses Itself Through Sincere Service”

Reflections of Life

Patsy Blanche Leverett was born on March 17, 1935 in Carlisle, South Carolina, daughter of Hattie Jones Kelly and Frank Kelly.

She retired from Exact Anodizing in Elizabeth, New Jersey after many years of service.

Patsy Leverett was the “Matriarch Grandmother” of the family. She dedicated much of her life raising her grandchildren in one aspect or another. Whether they lived with her or not she was proactive in their lives. From generation to generation “Grandma” as she was referred to was the one who loved, SPOILED, parented and was available to them from birth to adulthood. She was a Virtuous Grandmother and we thank our Sovereign and Holy Triune God for her life and all that He provided her and the family.

Patsy Blanche Leverett departed this life on Friday, February 8, 2013 at her Elizabeth home at the age of 77. She was predeceased by 2 sons, Larry Leverett and Capous Will Leverett, Jr.; her parents, Hattie and Frank Kelly; and siblings, Mae and John Henry Kelly.

She leaves to cherish fond memories, a son, Kelly E.M. Stewart (Elizabeth); 3 daughters, Rev. Patricia Leverett, Diane Leverett-Dully (Blake) and Christine Leverett; 14 grandchildren; 13 great grandchildren; a maternal niece, Joanne Kelly and a host of other relatives and friends.

Lovingly and Sorrowfully,
The Family

When Tomorrow Starts With Out Me

When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not there to see; If the sun should rise and find your eyes all filled with tears of me; I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today, While thinking of the many things we didn't get to say. I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, And each time you think of me, I know you'll miss me too. But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand, That an angel came & called my name and took me by the hand, And said my place was ready in heaven far above, And that I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love. But as I turned to walk away, a tear fell from my eye, I had so much to live for and so much yet to do. It seemed almost impossible that I was leaving you. I thought of all the yesterdays, the good ones and the bad I thought of all the love we shared and all the fun we had. If I could re-live yesterday, I thought, just for a while, I'd say good-bye and kiss you and maybe see your smile. But then I fully realized that this could never be, For emptiness and memories would take place of me.

But when I walked through heaven's gates, I felt so much at home. God looked down on me smiled at me, from His golden throne, This is eternity Today for life on Earth is past but here it starts anew. I promise no tomorrow, but today will always last, So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart, For every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart.
