Obituary

Shamika Lashonda Quick was born May 25, 1987 in Newark, NJ to Evelyn Quick and the late Hasan Cherrie. She was the second child of four children and a twin with sister, Tamika Quick.

Shamika attended the Newark Public School System, graduating from Avon Avenue Elementary School and the Malcolm X Shabazz High School.

Shamika worked for Shibo Bus Company in East Orange, NJ as an aide for many years. She later worked for an East Orange Daycare Center where she received a prestigious award for her outstanding contribution for helping with children.

Shamika was both liked and loved by so many people. The smile she wore was so beautiful that it would light up every room she entered. Her kindness and generosity affected everyone she met.

Shamika enjoyed singing, dancing and helping her family. Most of all, she enjoyed being a mother to her two precious children.

Shamika rededicated her life to Jesus Christ on December 2, 2012 and joined the church. She was excited about the changes that were taking place in her life.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her daughter, Kahliyah Quick; her son, Jarrod Cherrie; her mother, Evelyn Quick; her sisters, Tamika Quick and Yonna Quick; her brother, Clark Quick; her aunts, Claudette Quick, Veronica Quick and Geneva Quick; great-aunt, Della Crandell; great-uncle, Julius Crandell; uncle, Timony Quick; one nephew, her best friend, Shakira Solomon; and a host of family and loved ones.

Miss Me But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.*

*Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.*

*For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.*

*It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.*

*Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*
