

THE MEASURE OF A MAN

Not - How did he die? But - How did he live?
Not - What did he gain? But - What did he give?

These are the things that measure the worth
Of a man as a man, regardless of birth.

Not - What was his station? But - had he a heart?
And - How did he play his God-given part?

Was he ever ready with a word of good cheer?
To bring back a smile, to banish a tear?

Not - What was his church? Not - What was his creed?
But - Had he befriended those really in need?

Not - What did the sketch in the newspaper say?
But - How many were sorry when he passed away?

Acknowledgements

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.

Obituary

Eugene Baker was born on the 18th of November 1984 to Georgia Thompson and Todd Baker. Eugene was known to family and friends as “Bubba”. He was born in Perth Amboy, New Jersey.

Later moved to Newark, New Jersey, where he attended and graduated from West Side High School in 2002. Eugene loved spending time with family and friends, fixing cars, making music and playing music at cookouts and parties. He was well known for his easy going manners and generous heart. Never said no when it came to giving an helping hand whether it was to fix something in the house up, giving someone a ride. He enjoyed spending time with his loving son and being the best father there can be. He had a thing for fashion and truly cared about his appearance, boy did he love fixing up every car he ever owned never once went anywhere without his main favorite thing (his hats).

Eugene Baker was called above to rest with our heavenly father February 16, 2013, leaving behind many great memories he filled the air with his gentle bright smile and easy going spirit.

Always a smile instead of a frown, always true, thoughtful and kind. All the wonderful memories Bubba left behind.

Eugene spirit lives on, in everyone leaving behind: his only son, Nashon Baker; daughter, Emani Baker; mother, Georgia Thompson; father, Todd Baker; girlfriend, Jennifer; four sisters, Georgette Baker, Shatay Baker, Camille Wright and Amani Bracy; three brothers, Derrick Baker, Todd Baker and Dermont Thompson; five nieces, Ka’Asia, Trinity, Sarah, Tamia, Tania; four nephews, Brian, Derrick, Jr., Zaire and Kyon; six, aunts, Brenda, Cynthia, P’Cilla, Amy, Jackie and Gina; two uncles, Tariq and David; grandmother, Edwina; grandfather, George Thompson; eight cousins, Shiffon, George, Vanessa, Monique, Darnell, Jasmine, Evette and Nicole; lifetime best friend, Nelsi; and a host of other relatives and numerous friends whom were blessed to know him.

Bubba will be greatly missed.
