Obituary

Ora Lee Edwards was born Saturday, February 9, 1924 in Hampton, South Carolina, to Mr. and Mrs. Hamp and Minnie Brown. She was one of five children, Mr. Arthur Brown, Mr. Louis Brown, Mr. April Brown and Mrs. Fredericka Capers, all of whom preceded her in death.

As a child, the Brown Family lived in Savannah, Georgia where Ora was raised and educated.

On June 1, 1941, she married her childhood sweetheart, George C. Edwards, who preceded her in death. George and Ora relocated to New York City, where she worked for the I.L.C.W.C. Local 62-32 until the early 1980's. Ora was a talented seamstress, who enjoyed making clothing, not only professionally but also for family members.

Ora leaves to mourn: three stepchildren, Christine Nelson, Tracie King, and George Haynes; four nieces, Mrs. Rosalyn Greau of Willingboro, NJ, Mrs. Marie Hemingway of Trenton, NJ, Terry Crumbley of Willingboro, NJ and Cynthia Anderson of Newark, NJ; a granddaughter, Mrs. Mary Mitchel of VA; seven grandnieces, Taneshia Rhoe, Alaisha Rhoe-Capers, Alicia Brown, Terry Washington, Eryka Adams and Kimberly Walker; three nephews, George Rhoe, Frank Rhoe and Eric Crumbley Sr.; two grandnephews, Tyrone Washington and Michael Washington; as well as one god-daughter, Lauren Deveaux of Spring Valley, NY; and a host of cousins, in-laws and friends.

We will miss you but we will never forget you. You were a quiet soul but an impressive influence on all of us. Rest in Peace Aunty.

Love Your Family

A Special Bridge

*Our memories build a special bridge when loved ones have parted now that you have crossed that bridge,
your seat at our table will forever be empty.
However, a place in our hearts will forever be filled with love and Happy Memories.
Your toll has been paid,
So rest now and enjoy your peace.*

Love Rosalyn
