Obituary

Carl S. Jackson was born September 13, 1947 to the late Samuel Leroy and Alberta Jackson. Carl departed this life on March 7, 2013 at 9:42 a.m.

Carl attended the Newark Vocational School where he graduated and received his diploma for printing and was later employed at Printing Home Delight for many years.

Carl was married to the late Deborah Jackson for thirty-seven years. They were blessed with a son, Akbar Jackson and a daughter Khadijah Jackson. Carl was a happy person who didn't let anything bother him. He made sure his pick-it was in order and that he kissed all the children on their foreheads.

Carl leaves to mourn his death: his two children, Akbar and Khadijah Jackson; one grandson, Isaad Jackson; a brother, Samuel Jackson (Nancy Jackson); sister, Juanita Strothers Booker (the late Ronald Booker); two brothers-in-law, Norma Lockery, and Tommy Lockery; two sisters-in-law, Sharon Oglesby and Geraldine Caldwell; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, aunts, friends and two special friends, Teddy Rodriquez and Ann Condento.

Carl was preceded in death by his brother, William Jackson, sister, Delia Walker (John Walker), sister-in-law, Aisha Lockery and brother-in-law, Curtis Lockery.

Don't Cry For Me

Don't cry for me
For I am where, I need to be
I can reach out my hands,
No longer clenched.
I can stretch out my toes,
No longer folded.
I can now see flowers.
That were once not there.
I'm happy with all
That were yet so rare.
I smile at our memories.
I can see each face.
I'll remember the love,
All its warm embrace(s).
So don't cry for me,
Because I am ok.
I'm now home with my God.
He wanted it this way.

~Written by Tahisha Strothers

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever
