Reflections of Life

*A man's heart plans his way, but the Lord directs his steps.
Proverbs 16:9*

Cleveland Neal was born in Camden, SC to the late Alfred and Carrie Neal on July 4, 1918. He attended the Camden, South Carolina School system and was a member of St. John's Baptist Church in Camden.

"Cle," as he was affectionately called, was the husband of the late Cora Lee (nee Duren). To this union, three children were born: the late Attie Mae Lykes, Richard and Dorothy.

Cle served this great nation in the United States Army during World War II.

He later moved to Paterson, NJ and became a member of St. Luke Baptist Church where he served on the usher board.

The Lord called Cleveland home on March 6, 2013.

Cleveland leaves to cherish precious memories: one son, Richard (Brenda) Neal; daughter, Dorothy (Washington) Walton; two sisters, Mable Biggs of Paterson, NJ and Lizzie Jones of Camden, South Carolina; eight grandchildren, twenty-two great grandchildren, several great great grandchildren, three sisters-in-law; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

To everything there is a season, and a time for every purpose under the heaven.² A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted.³ A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up.⁴ A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance.

Ecclesiastes 3:1-4

Oh give thanks unto the Lord for He is good, yes!! He is good.
