Reflections of Life

Herbert “Bud” Davis, Jr. was born on October 10, 1940 in Rich Square, North Carolina to the late, Ella Davis and Herbert Davis, Sr.

He relocated to Paterson, New Jersey in 1960. Herbert was a well known and well loved person in the community who always walked around with a smile on his face and he loved to tell jokes. He befriended all he came in contact with, he didn't care who you were. He just loved people and was very respectful to others, “but loved to talk smack”.....

His favorite hobbies were; music, dancing, singing, cooking, baking and playing his guitar. He loved riding his bike and working on his bicycle collection. He was a blessing to the children and neighbors in the community.

Herbert loved to have the Word of God ministered to him. He was formerly employed at Thomas Pomotta Construction Company and at Zager Bros. Metal & Iron of Paterson, New Jersey as a Fork Lift Operator.

In addition to his parents, Herbert was also predeceased by three sons; James Williams, Herbert Davis, III and Howard Davis, four brothers; Henry Clark, Lawyer Davis, Fred Davis and Jean Davis, three sisters; Easter Mae Nichols, Beulah Davis and Louise Davis, brother-in-law; Earnest Earl Nichols.

Herbert departed this life on Saturday, March 9, 2013.

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not there to see if the sun should rise and find your eyes, all filled with tears for me. I wish so much you wouldn't cry, the way you did today, while thinking of the many things, we didn't get to say. I know how much you love me, as much as I love you, and each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too. But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand that an angel came and called my name, and took me by the hand and said, "my place was ready, in heaven far above and that I'd have to leave behind, all those I dearly love." But when I walked through heaven's gates, I felt so much at home. When God looked down and smiled at me, from His great golden throne. He said "This is eternity, and all I've promised you." Today for life on earth is past, but here it starts anew. I promise no tomorrow, for today will always last. And since each day's the same way, there's no longing for the past. So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart. For every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart.
