Obituary

Callie A. Dails better known as “Ann” was born on March 20, 1950 in Henderson, NC to the late Bessie Mae Cooper and Edward Thomas Twitty. She was the third of five siblings.

After losing their father to cancer, Ann’s mother relocated the family to Newark, NJ in 1965. Ann attended and graduated from the Newark public schools, West Kinney Jr. High 1966 and West Side High 1969. Shortly afterwards, Ann blossomed as she entered into womanhood in a loving relationship with Kenneth Williams and later becoming a devoted mother.

During 1975, Ann met the late Tommy Dails and continued to enjoy her life with him as a mother and home maker up until their union as husband and wife in September 1992. No children were conceived from that union.

Ann was employed by Northern Star Transportation, Inc. where she worked several years as a school bus attendant. Her love of children and her compassionate nature made her ideal for that position.

Life was good to Ann, because Ann was good to life. She gave goodness and she got back goodness. Any and all will confess that “to know her is to love her.” She will truly be missed.

Ann leaves to mourn: her son, Steven Twitty; daughter, Keisha Twitty; sister, Mary Twitty; six grandchildren, Carin, Chaneyyah and Kyle Twitty, Steven Twitty-Bethea, Shanise Davis and Adriana Johnson; sister-in-law, Alice Salias; niece, Rasheda McMurray; loving companion, Thomas Lockery; as well as a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

Come To me

*God saw she was getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So He gently closed those loving eyes
And whispered "Come to me"
The days of toil and nights of pain
The weary hours have passed
The patient gentle worn out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
Day and night we stood by her
And saw her in pain,
Anxiously awaiting her cure
But our waiting was in vain.
God who knoweth all things best
Eased her suffering, gave her rest
She is gone but not forgotten,
Never will our memories fade
Sweetest thoughts of her will ever linger
Round the place where she rests.*

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever
