

The Measure of A Man

Not - How did he die? But - How did he live?
Not - What did he gain? But - What did he give?

These are the things that measure the worth
Of a man as a man, regardless of birth.

Not - What was his station? But - had he a heart?
And - How did he play his God-given part?

Was he ever ready with a word of good cheer?
To bring back a smile, to banish a tear?

Not - What was his church? Not - What was his creed?
But - Had he befriended those really in need?

Not - What did the sketch in the newspaper say?
But - How many were sorry when he passed away?

These are the things that measure the worth
Of a man as a man, regardless of birth.

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.

Obituary

James Edward Sanders departed this life on Friday, March 15, 2013 after a long illness. He was born on August 14, 1933 in Blakely, Georgia. He was preceded in death by his mother Dallie Sanders.

Affectionately known as “Jimmy” he was educated in the Warner Robins school system in Georgia.

Jimmy served in the United States Army from 1955-1961 wherein he received a medal of Good Conduct and an Honorable Discharge. He was the loving father of two children, Larry Sanders and Gwen Bowman.

After his military service he relocated to Newark, NJ and began working at the US Postal Service. He received many commendations, two of which he was most proud of...attendance and driving the big rigs. He retired from the US Post Office in 1998 after nearly forty years of exemplary service.

While working at the Post Office Jimmy met Earline Turnage. The two were inseparable and became one on March 30, 1971. Jimmy enjoyed traveling with his beloved wife, and spending time with family and friends. Many of his travels throughout the United States and the Caribbean were with the Magnificent 12, a travel organization of which he was a founding member.

Jimmy was a proud member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW), a nonprofit service organization for military veterans. There he held various roles of service over the years.

He was a quiet man but you could always depend on him for a good chuckle. He enjoyed big cars, sports, western movies, and reading the newspaper.

He leaves to mourn, his loving wife of forty-two years Earline of Hillside, NJ, two children, Larry Sanders of Richmond, VA, Gwen Bowman of Newark, NJ, four grandchildren, two great-grandchildren, two brothers, Louis Sanders (Corene) of Blakely, GA, Albert Johnson (Betty) of Warner Robins, GA, three sisters, Eddie Mae Claiborne of Warner Robins, GA, Jean Clark of Atlanta, GA; and was predeceased by Katie Mansfield. He also leaves a sister-in-law, Helen Covington of Newark, NJ, a God-Daughter Larita Winbush of Carrollton, GA, and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, and wonderful friends.

Jimmy was well loved and will be missed by many.
