

Psalm 91

He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust. Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence. He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler. Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day; Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday. A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee. Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked. Because thou hast made the Lord, which is my refuge, even the most High, thy habitation; There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling. For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways. They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone. Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet. Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name. He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honour him. With long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation.

Obituary

Carolene Cobb, known to many as “Carol” was born November 4, 1958 in Newark, New Jersey. She was the second born out of seven children to Christine Cobb and the late Wilbert C. Cobb.

She attended Miller Street Elementary School and then attended South Side High School, now known as Malcolm X Shabazz High School.

She was employed at United Cerebral Palsey as a bus attendant for years. She also was employed by Cross Transportation as a bus driver.

She accepted Christ as her Savior and became a member of the Christian Love Baptist Church in 2009.

“Carol” had an abundance of love for her family, friends and even strangers, her smile, her touch, was a burst of sunshine. Being around “Carol”, there was a guarantee of laughter and fun. “Carol” had a “gift of gab”, in any given situation she would not give up until the situation was right or at least fair. She was outgoing, caring, giving, loving and a beautiful person with a heart of gold.

Carolene was the beloved daughter of Christine Cobb. She is also survived by her devoted children, Al-Terick Cobb, Christinmah Cobb and Robert T. Holt-Cobb; dear sister of, Adrienne Cobb, Antoinette Cobb, Johnathan Cobb and Jermaine Cobb; cherished grandmother of, Al-Terick Cobb Jr., Isiah Cobb, Teniyyah Cobb, Alnazir Cobb, Ahtaiziah Cobb and Shadon Beane Jr. and Jaden Johnson; loving great grandmother of, Zion Cobb. She is also survived by two uncles, two aunts, four nephews, two great nephews and eight nieces; special niece, Latreisha Cobb; special cousin, Cynthia Cobb; god children, Kim Poindexter, Tremane Coleman and Sameerah Coleman; dear friend, Robert T. Holt; and a host of other relatives and friends. She was preceded in death by two siblings, Michael J. Cobb and Renee M. Cobb and grandparents, Mattie E. Cobb and Frank Cobb.

Dear Mother

By Christinmah

*My true love had to up and leave
I beg you mother please don't forget about me.
Now you watch me from the sky above
That doesn't seem to matter because I can still feel your love.
Keep me in your heart and I'll do the same
I hope I've made you proud of the woman I became.
My life revolved around you so without you what am I to do.
Oh wait I know I'll be just like you.
Forgiving, loving and sweet to everyone I meet.
Mother to see you again will be the happiest moment of my life
We'll be together forever in the lovely place of paradise.*
