Dad

Our lives are so much richer
Having you as our father.
You provided us with all the tools
To make it in this world.
You were our rock.
Your hard work and sacrifices
Will never be forgotten.

Love,
Richard, Marie, Darryl, and Eric

"Where Our Sympathy Expresses Itself Through Sincere Service"

Remembering James

Mr. James Walter Brown, son of the late Mr. Claude Brown and the late Essie Lee (Thornton) Brown, was born December 17, 1930 in Stewart County, Georgia. He was the oldest of five children. He was educated in the Stewart County Public School System.

At an early age, he became a member of the Shady Grove Baptist Church in Georgia where he sang in the choir. James' first job was at Tom Houston Mill in Columbus, Georgia.

In his early twenties, he moved to New Jersey where he met and married Shirley (Smith) Brown and from this union five children were born.

James was employed by Lutz Construction Company in Elizabeth, New Jersey for thirty years, retiring in 1991.

In 1992, he returned to Columbus, Georgia and was working for the Muscogee County Public School System for the past twenty years.

James who always was a sharp dresser enjoyed singing and being around his family and friends.

He was predeceased by his sons, Dale and Patrick Brown.

James Walter Brown departed this life on Wednesday, April 17, 2013 at his home in Columbus, Georgia. He will truly be missed.

He leaves to cherish his memories three sons: Richard Brown, Darryl Brown and Eric Minor; one daughter, Marie Brown; one son-in-law, Treasy Brown; his special friend, Barbara Brown; two sisters, Deaconess Claudia Taylor and Ethel Mack; two brothers: Albert Brown and Deacon David (Annie Mae) Brown; three step-daughters, Melanie, Wendy, and Michelle; eleven grandchildren; four great-grandchildren and a host of loving nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

Lovingly and sorrowfully submitted,
The Family

Precious Memories

PALLBEARERS

Family and Friends of James Walter Brown

On the morning of April 17, 2013,
little did we know that God
was going to call your name.
James, your work here on Earth is done.
It broke our hearts to lose you.
Although we cannot see you our love and your wonderful memories will always be on our minds.
Our family chain is broken but as God calls us one by one it will link once again.

Love,
Ethel, Claudia, David, & Albert
