Obituary

Raheem Kamille "PDot" Chaney was granted his angel wings May 2, 2013.

Born February 10, 1981, in Newark, New Jersey he was the son of Bonita Chaney and Ralph Williams.

Raheem was born and raised in Newark but his travels across the states allowed him to acquire many friends and extended family. In his spare time he enjoyed being with those that he cherished and creating lasting memories. Raheem's life would seem too short to many, but those who were touched by him understood that the quality of existence far exceeds the quantity of time in which one lives. His smile that lit up the room, his humorous nature, and the joy of his spirit will be cherished by all that knew and loved him.

Raheem leaves to cherish his memory: his loving children, Raheem Davis Chaney, Mahasin Davis Chaney, Rakeeyah Chaney and Kamillah Chaney; his mother, Bonita Chaney; his father, Ralph Williams; grandmothers, Claudia Chaney and Johnnie Mae Williams; two brothers, Shatee Chaney and Tijuan Williams; four sisters, Alicia Chaney, Donnell Sykes, Mecca Williams and Myasia Williams; six aunts, Vera McDougale, Donna Chaney, Sherita Chaney, Mellissa Bigelow, Towanda Logan and Theresa Williams; two uncles, Lamont Chaney and Corey Mendenhaul; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends that will sincerely miss him.

Until We Meet Again

February 10, 1981, God granted permission for the skies to open and a world to change

Raheem Kamil Chaney, Her big boy

They called him P-Dot, Some simply said "Yo Rah"

For Raheem means merciful, kind, and compassionate,

On further breakdown he's a servant

And I can remember the look in your eyes when you spoke of family

The things you wanted to do for your children

When you mentioned your son or spoke of your daughter

Your smile had the ability to lighten any situation

We can still hear your laughter, Those bike rides down Arlington Bridge rode

The pool on Laventhal, playing hide and seek in the attic

You used to climb through the window

Teaching your sisters and cousins to drive

Singing Heavy D, "Got nothing but love for you baby"

Always too cool, Rapping on the block

Composing lyrics by freestyle, Shades on

Locs swaying, Hat tilted to the side

You stayed fresh to death, Always rocking nothing but the best

Chilling out on Avon, On Chancellor

They knew you on Clinton and back around the way

See life is nothing but a stopping place

A journey along the road, We know you couldn't stay another day

Not to party, not to laugh, not to play

In our hearts your love will forever stay

On our mind is where we'll keep you

Remember you at every event

During those quiet moments we'll hear your voice

When the family gathers we'll tell tales of you

Remind your children of who you were

From your burdens you've been set free

There will be no more worry, No more pain

No more tears, Your work is complete

We must now say Amen

Raheem Kamil Chaney, we shall meet again
