Reflections of Life

James Paschall was born June 26, 1925 in Nashville, Tennessee and died at the Bronx Concourse Nursing Home on May 6, 2013.

He spent time in the Navy during World War II. James worked at NYU as a custodian for over twenty years, and was well liked by his coworkers. He accepted Christ early in life. James was preceded by the late James & Minnie Paschall, his brother, Theodore Paschall, his sister, Roberta Dennis and his beloved wife, Estella Paschall.

James truly was a people person. His favorite things to do were to sit on the porch greeting the people, feeding the birds, eating at Munch Time, and was seen as "grandpa" to the children in the neighborhood.

He will be missed by his sister-in-law Geneva Wilson; Waynenetta Wingard & family; Harold and Dorothy Parker & family; Stanley and family. Sisters: Maybell Monroe, Louise Thompson, Bernice Smith, Doris Clark, and Gloria Belle; Brothers: Julius Paschall, Paul Paschall, and Charles Paschall; and a host of other family, neighbors, and friends.

Because The Angels Came

No more grief or sorrow, no more suffering or pain, now there is everlasting peace because the angels came. Only God knows what is best and He gently holds my hand. Guiding me to a better place because the angels came. When the sun rises tomorrow and I answer not my name, Please don't cry Rejoice with me because the angels came. I now can rest in peace as I never could before. I answered the gentle knock of the angels at my door. So please don't mourn for me as new wings I now claim, I can take my flight to heaven because the angels came.
