

When God calls The dearest ones we love To dwell with Him in perfect bliss above; We cannot feel that bound their human hearts to earth. So I've find comfort in the though that they may be the guardian angels keeping wathoèr us.

*Sleep on, Beloved, sleep and take Thy rest,
Lay down Thy weary head upon The Savior's breast;
We love Thee well, but Jesus loves Thee best.*

Obituary

Lula Dewitt walked through the Pearly Gates of Heaven on May 14, 2013 at 5:30am in complete comfort, without pain, and with peace with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Lula was born on November 30, 1912 in Conway, South Carolina to the late Joe Bellamy, Jr. and Mary Grice. In 1930, she met and married the late William Clen Dewitt. Together they enjoyed fifty-nine years of marital bliss, had two children, the late Joe Clen and Cutie Belle, and showed us all how prideful and decent people carry themselves in this world.

Lula was a dedicated and deeply religious wife and mother who raised her children to love The Lord.

She joined Cornerstone Baptist Church in the early 1950's where she became a devoted member, until her confinement to a nursing home in 2006, and sang in the Gospel Choir for over two decades.

Loved ones left to mourn and cherish her memories are her sister, Mary Scott, eleven grandchildren; Carolyn, Marlin, Reginald, Michael, Mujahid, Cynthia, Vicky, Darrell, Sabrina, Jeffrey and Reggie; numerous great and great-great children, nieces, nephews, friends and neighbors.

She was the oldest matriarch of our family who lived to be over 100 years old and will truly be missed.
