Precious Memories

Reflections of Life

On Wednesday, May 15, 2013 in Newark, New Jersey while walking home from Weequahic High School to get to his grandmothers house Paul "Coolie" Hudson, Jr. was expectantly taking away from his family and so many other people whom loved and adored him so much.

Paul Gerard Hudson, Jr. was born on February 17, 1995, to his very proud and patiently awaiting parents Mr. Paul Hudson, Sr. and Mrs. Keashia Hudson at St. Barnabas Hospital, Livingston, NJ. As a baby he was given the name "Coolie" and that name stuck with him his entire life.

Coolie was raised in Newark, NJ where he attended Chancellor Avenue, Annex, moving on to Chancellor Avenue Elementary and then moving on to Weequahic High School, Newark, NJ, where he was in his last stages of receiving his high school diploma (one of his parents biggest dreams.) While attending Weequahic High School he played football his freshman year he was also a member on the Garden State Bowling League.

He had a passion for drawing and rapping when sometimes he wrote his own lyrics Coolie was a great dancer he knew how to draw a crowd when he danced and with his dreamy eyes that would brighten up the room. He was known for his fashion sense which was a family trait.

Coolie was the most gentle and humble young man you could ever meet and had a love for his family that was beyond compare. Coolie was very protective over his younger sister Brianna and took care of her just like a big brother should. When Coolie finally got his drivers license which brought him so much joy because he always wanted to drive. Coolie drove so well that his parents brought him his own car then he was happier than you could ever imagine. Coolie was one of the brightest stars and blessing this family ever had, what a joy.

Unfortunately, instead of saying congratulations to him for his completion of high school we are now saying our sorrowful good-byes much much to soon. Where there should be happiness and laughter there's now tears and pain. Our family is very hurt and heart broken to lose such a young member for he was a son, a brother, a nephew, a cousin, a grandchild and our friend.

Paul "Coolie" Hudson, Jr. is joined in eternal peace with his maternal grandparents, Cynthia Thomas and Lynwood Earl Best, paternal grandfather, David Hudson III and uncle, Otis Polite.

He is survived by his parents, Keashia and Paul Hudson, Sr.; younger sister, Brianna; uncles, David Hudson, III Janet Hudson and Rasheed Willis; his girlfriend, Amirah Lovejoy; grandmother, Ruthy Hudson; grandfather, Samuel Johnson; great grandmother, Ruthy Hudson; great grandmother, Gloria Polite; great aunts, Jody Thomas, Lori Sykes, Queenie Roberts, Rose and Blondie McNair, Shirley Hussey and Patricia Williams; great uncle, Wesley Thomas; great great aunts, Roselee Harbin, Dorothy McClain and Lee Anna Coleman; great great uncles, Launder Coleman; and a host of other relatives, family and friends.

He was greatly loved and will be deeply missed.

To My Loved Ones

No reason for sorrow, no reason to cry. Look toward tomorrow and I'll tell you why my memories of you and yours of me are filled with love and laughter forever. You'll see no reason to worry, nor question God as to why you have lost me. No reason to say goodbye.

It's time for my journey home, a beautiful and peaceful trip that I must make alone. So just be strong and keep a smile, we'll only be apart for a little while. The love I've known is a very special part, the love I've shown came straight from the heart.

I leave you now to go on my way to a wonderful place where we'll be together someday. No reason at all as you can see. I'm with my Lord. He'll take care of me.

Acknowledgements

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We Thank You, Whatever the part.
