Just Hang On

*In all the times that seem so hard
When tears cry out inside,
You must explore new ways to live,
Reverse depression's tide.
When all of your solutions
Stay away, remain unknown,
Are you are isolated
In your heart and feel alone,
Remember that the world
Is full of others just like you
And you can reach beyond the darkness,
Change your point of view.
Everyone has moments
When their problems seem too much,
Everyone has joys that seem Elusive, out of touch. But when it all seems very bleak.
And hope has all but gone. Remember, time will heal your heavy thoughts If you'll hang on.*
