

An Angel in God hands, died so young, I guess that was His plan. Her past we know sure wasn't perfect, but the time we all shared was surely worth it. You always held us down day and night, without question if we're wrong or right. You'll never be forgotten and always have love, but the time has come to head tot he light followed by doves.

*Truly yours
Chauncy

Obituary

Pamela Denise Shirley was born October 6, 1967 to her parents Fanny Shirley and Wilbur Ellis.

As a child she attended People's Community Temple until she was escorted out for being disruptive! This was the beginning of the Pamela everyone grew to know and love. She attended NYC Public Schools, P.S. 180, Wadleigh and Bandeis until she got kicked out for knowing more than the teacher!

As an adult she lost her way! Always loving and kind hearted but was quick to hit you with her line "Let me hold something." The last few years of Pam's life she made peace with good and most important herself.

Pamela leaves behind to mourn: her mother, Fanny Shirley; her two sons, Rodney and Timothy; sister and brother-in-law, Cynthia and Ron Lee; her two brothers, Gregory and Raymond; and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins.

We Love and Miss You Pam
