Obituary

Edith “Edie” was a life long resident of Englewood, NJ. Edie made her heavenly transition on May 30, 2013 at The Daughters of Miriam Nursing Center, Clifton, NJ. She was the daughter of the late Louis E and Ida Mae (nee Joyce) Warren. Edie was predeceased by her late brother, Louis Jr. and nephew, Louis III.

She is survived by: her beloved sister, Doris (nee Warren) Fowler and sister-in-law Agnes (nee McSwain) Warren; four nieces, Monica Turnage (Kenneth) of Rahway, NJ, Rebecca Warren of Newark, NJ, Adrienne Powell and Michelle Brozowski of Middletown NY; six nephews, Damon, Dwayne, Terrance Warren of Newark, NJ, Paul Warren (Alisha) of North Carolina, Howard Powell Of Englewood and Kevin Kenneth Fowler (Janet) of Plainfield, NJ all of whom she raised and taught many, many things.

At an early life she accepted Jesus as her savior, at the old first Baptist Church located then on Williams St in Englewood under to tillage of Pastor Goodman. Edie sang on the choir and worked on the usher board.

Edie attended Englewood Public School System. After completion she worked for The Leonia Board of Education as a dietary aide until her unfortunate debilitating automobile accident.

Edie continued to enjoy raising her nephews, nieces and their many, many descendents. She held each child as her very own. There was never a time you didn't see her in the kitchen whipping up her special dishes, scramble eggs and another family favorite craps. If Edie made it, it was yummy!

Edie was a two time stroke survivor and two time cancer survivor! Through all her pain she never complained, she never said a mumbling word.

Our hearts are heavy for OUR loss but our souls soar for Edie's flight. Set sail my queen for we know we have a Angel watching over us!

Because The Angels Came

No more grief or sorrow, no more suffering or pain, now there is everlasting peace because the angels came. Only God knows what is best and He gently holds my hand . Guiding me to a better place because the angels came. When the sun rises tomorrow and I answer not my name, Please don't cry Rejoice with me because the angels came. I now can rest in peace as I never could before. answered the gentle knock of the angels at my door. So please don't mourn for me as new wings I now claim, I can take my flight to heaven because the angels came.
