Obituary

Freddie Smith (Slim) was born on September 7th, 1948 to Ona Fay Spellman, in Texas. He later went into the Marine Corps in December of 1968, where he served his country proudly (Sergeant Freddie Smith) until he was honorably discharged after being wounded on a mission.

He moved to New York where he worked numerous jobs. Slim lived with his sister, helping her raise her children while she worked on getting her degree and held jobs as well. When someone was in need slim would not hesitate to help them to the best of his abilities. He was a kindhearted person who would give you the shirt off of his back and every dime in his pocket if you needed it. Slim was a very friendly person, no matter what or where he was he could always make a friend whether it was walking down the street or standing in line at a store he would always initiate a conversation and would converse as if they've known each other for years.

He was a caring and loving man. He enjoyed walking along the boardwalk, dancing and singing as people played music. Slim was a free spirited man who loved life. Everyone knew he was near when he would call out his Marine term 'OORAH'. He was well respected and will forever be missed by his family and friends.

Freddie Smith (Slim) leaves to mourn: his sister, Denise; brother in-law, Larr; nieces, Chevonna (Bruce) Princess (William) Adrieen, Crystal (Robert) Tiffany (Glenroy), Ebony (Taedon) Sade, Mocha and Jackie; great nieces and nephews, god daughter, cousins, a host of family and friends and his buddy, (roommate) Charles.

The Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.*
