I Will Miss You

*I will miss you, my son so dear, I will miss having you for our Special talks late at night;
even our sometimes silly fights.*

*I will miss you,
my son so dear our laughs,
our fears and even our tears.*

*You were not only my son but my friend. We have also bonded through life and death; never ending, never broken. We could express ourselves with words unspoken so together we will face the stormy weather. You will be missed by all who love you.
I know that I will see you again in all our glory, another life a different story! So goodbye my love and rest in peace now, till we meet again.*

Your Loving Mother

A Note To My Dad

I just want you to know that I Love You and I will try my best for you to be good...Love, Jayda

My dad was a great dad. He took care of me, Jayda and Cayla. His dream was to be a professional rapper. He will be missed forever...Love, Akyra

I miss you. I want you to come back...Love Cayla

A Note To My Brother

*To my loving brother...you know I love you so much and you are in a better place!
...your Little Sister Tay Tay*

Reflections of Life

In my Father's house are many rooms; if it were not so, I would have told you. I am going there to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am. You know the way to the place where I am going. John 14:1-4

Teshon Jamaa Clegg entered this life on the 13th of February, in the year of 1981 in Newark, NJ, at University Hospital to the proud parents of Tammy Renee Clegg and the late (Jeffrey Mark Beatty). He lived his entire life in Hillside, NJ at 154 Grumman Avenue (Nana's) with his loving sister, Taylor McEachin and his mother, Tammy Renee Clegg (Moms). Teshon was baptized at The House of Prayer Episcopal Church in Newark, NJ. His grandfather the late (William Ross Clegg) and his grandmother were rooted in the Episcopal Church and insisted on him being raised up in the church where he attended bible school regularly and eventually became an alter boy for the House of Prayer Church.

He attended school at Walter O. Krumbiegel Elementary and Hillside High School where he amassed a wealth of friends and classmates. Teshon was also active in the Pop Warner Football Program, excelling as a wide receiver in the league.

After high school Teshon interned at EE&C with his mother and then went on to hold jobs as a cable TV installer at Comcast and Cablevision. Teshon was also able to obtain his commercial drivers license by graduating from Smith and Solomon Truck Driving School which helped him obtain a position as a Class A truck Driver with Occupational Recycling of Bloomfield, NJ and his last job as a Limousine Driver.

Teshon also had numerous passions in life, one of his favorite was playing and teaching others to play chess. As well as music and rap, going on to produce several rap songs and videos with his friends from the area faithfully known as “G-Block”. His greatest passion of all was his unwavering love for his beautiful daughters (and I mean beautiful), Akyra Franklin (Latoya), Jayda Clegg (Asherah) and Cayla Byron (Jennifer) all of whom will miss their dad dearly.

Teshon received a proclamation and recognition from the township of Hillside for his unselfish and brave act of civic responsibility by coming to the aid of an elderly woman during an attempted robbery.

On the evening of May 27th, 2013, Teshon Jamaa Clegg aka “Glazz” was called home to do even greater works, for a higher power.

Teshon leaves to cherish his memories and his spirit for life his three daughters, Akyra, Jayda and Cayla; his sisters, Khalilah Morris (Rev. Curtis Morris) and Taylor McEachin; his brother, Darious Washington; his mother, Tammy Clegg (Trent Norman); his father, the late Jeffrey Mark Beatty; his loving, caring and always supportive grandmother, Rosalia Clegg and the late Lucille Beatty; grandfather, the late William Ross Clegg; one step brother, Trent Brooks; one step sister, Lakeesha Matthews; an aunt, Lafone Beatty; uncles, Michael W. Clegg and Todd L. Dickey, Kason Norman (Keisha Norman); his great aunts, Lucille Herndon, Marjorie Armstrong (Bobby Armstrong), Alma Beatty, Pamela Hodges, Alberta Gregory, Pearl Beatty, the late Rica Jenkins; his great uncles, Lucious Dickey (Ida), Glenn Dickey (Lynell), Surrogate aunts, Norma Jean, Janet, Pam, Terry, Felicia, Stephanie, Erin, Lisa and Keisha; godmothers, Sherril Smith, Marge Eldridge, and Godfathers, Rev. Kyle Abercrombie, John Collins; and a host of relatives, family and friends.
