

Don't Cry For Me

*Don't cry me because I left you alone
Don't cry for me my time was drawing near
God saw I was tired and no cure was to be by man
Don't cry for me because I'm on my way home
My golden heart stopped beating us God took my hand to rest
Don't cry for me but always remember my face
Don't cry for me but remember all the times we shared
Don't cry for me God took me to prove to us
He only takes he's best.
Don't cry for me

Obituary

Mrs. Ebony Lynn Howell the daughter of David Douglas and the late Stephanie Carroll, and Julia Myers of Trenton, NJ was born on November 7, 1983.

Ebony attended the public schools of Trenton, NJ. Upon graduating from Trenton Central High School. Ebony later enrolled in and graduated from Sanford Brown Institute, Trevese, PA. She was employed by New Jersey State records Library for the blind, where she met her lovely husband at the snack machine “believe me she never missed her break”.

Ebony was a member of First Baptist of Yardly, Yardolly, PA, under the Pastoral care of pastor Tahijj Counts.

Mrs. Ebony Howell lived way passed man’s expectations. She departed this life on Tuesday, May 28, 2013. The Angel of the Lord met her early Tuesday morning at Beth Israel Barnabas Health Hospice and Palliative Care Center Newark, New Jersey where he carried her to a world where there is no sorrow or pain.

Mrs. Ebony Lynn Howell leaves to cherish her memory: her loving husband, Wayman Howell of Trenton, NJ; one stepson, Nahiem Howell of Gaithersburg, MD; her father, Davis A. Douglas of Trenton, NJ; seven brothers, Dwayne, Kyle, Michael, Tahijj, Quashon Terrance of Trenton, NJ, Christopher of East Windsor, NJ; four sisters, Keya, Shirley, Motess of Trenton, NJ, Tatianna of Philadelphia, PA’ grandparents, the late Penelope Carroll, David and Susan Douglas of Fairless Hills, PA and Hamilton, NJ; great grandparents, the late Richard Kidd, Ida Kidd of Lawrenceville, NJ, Sonja of Morrisville, PA and Monica of Bowie, MD; three uncles, Thomas of Philadelphia, PA, Brian and Terrence of Trenton, NJ; two best friends, Jordand Nokes and Nikeeta Mayfield of Trenton, NJ; special friend, mother Sarah of Trenton, NJ; and a host of aunts, uncles, other relatives and friends.
