Obituary

Vera Carrie Barber was born November 14, 1921 through the union of Rosetta Byes and Andrew Byes in Asbury Park, New Jersey.

Vera went on to graduate from Herron High School in New York City, and then from Pratt Institute in Brooklyn where she earned a degree as a Dietitian. She worked in this profession at Harlem Hospital, where she dedicated over forty years of faithful service as the Food Service Administrator.

Vera married James T. Barber Jr. and from that union proudly raised two boys, Kenneth Sr. and Anthony. She is survived by her sister-in-law, Clara, son, Anthony, grandsons, Vaughn Jason and Kenneth Jr., two great-grandchildren, and many loving nieces and nephews.

Vera was an outstanding pillar of the community. After retirement, she worked as a volunteer for consumer affairs and several afternoon children's programs. She was a world traveler who lived a full and joyful life.

The Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.*
