Reflections of Life

Vania Lee (Avent) Coe-Mitchell, also known by her family as "RaRa", was born on December 8, 1947 in Hackensack, New Jersey.

Vania graduated from Central High School and attended college for two years. After college, she worked as a substitute teacher at Public School Eight. Not only was Vania a substitute teacher, she also worked at Kay Sams for more than eighteen years and was a Home Health Aide until she retired in 2012. As a child, Vania spent many summers in Virginia with her grandmother, sisters and cousins. She loved flowers, fishing and listening to Gospel music and was a devoted member at Christ Temple Church where she served on the Senior Usher Board. Vania inspired her grandchildren to be active in church and taught them to serve the Lord early in life.. Her favorite scripture was Psalm 23. After many years, she married her best friend and soul mate, Charles Mitchell.

Vania was preceded in death by her father and mother, John and Mable Avent, one daughter, Keisha Coe, one sister, Bernice Williams and one brother, John Jr. Avent.

She departed this life on June 3, 2013 in Paterson, NJ.

Vania leaves to cherish her memory: a devoted husband, Charles Mitchell; one daughter, Deidre Coe; one son, Eric Coe; step-son, Maurice Mitchell of NC; three grandchildren, Jihad King, Jakeisha Coe and Jacquese Coe; two sisters "The Twins" Arlene Holmes and Kathleen Kibler all of Paterson, New Jersey; one sister-in-law, Lizzy Mitchell of Halifax, North Carolina; one brother-in-law, John Mitchell of Paterson, New Jersey; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

*God said you were getting weary
So He did what He knew best.
He came and stood beside you and whispered "come and rest."
We could not understand it no matter how we tried
If love alone could have saved you
You would have never died.
So sleep our dear beloved
We all love you
But God loved you the best.*

Thank You

Ms. Gwenn Levin: The entire family would like to thank you for your love and support in past and present times.

Special Thank You

The family would like to thank the Senior Usher Board and Christ Temple Church for their love and support.

The family of the late Vania Coe-Mitchell wishes to thank all of you for kind words and prayers in moment of bereavement. May God forever bless and keep you in His tender and loving care.
