The Obituary

Mrs. Willene Patricia Carson was born on February 3, 1946 to the late Booker T. Summers and Claire Campbell in Harmony, NC. She transitioned on Wednesday, June 19, 2013 at New York Hospital Medical Center of Queens after a period of declining health.

During her early years she grew up in a loving household which in addition to her two parents consisted of seven brothers and two sisters. "Chock" short for chocolate, as she was affectionately called by her siblings loved being with family.

After high school Willene relocated to New York where she was united in marriage to her high school sweetheart James D. Carson on August 23, 1966. From this union four sons were born: Eugene, Reginald, James and Jonathan. Willene retired from the New York City Police Department after 30 years of dedicated and honored service. She is survived by eight grandchildren: Terrell, Wylear, Jocelyn, Shango, Joshua, Matthew, Jada and Myles. Additionally she is survived by two sisters Irene Steele and Claudine Lewis and one brother, Booker T. Summers, Jr. She leaves behind a host of nieces and nephews.

Willene lived her life to the fullest. She always had an encouraging word and was never too busy to listen to a broken heart. She was a faithful mother, devoted wife and nurturing grandmother. She always conducted herself with dignity and respect. Willene loved to travel the world and took many vacations with her coworkers to places such as Mexico and the Dominican Republic. Additionally, she enjoyed yearly cruises with her family to places such as the Bahamas, and other Caribbean countries. An avid baseball fan, who loved the Yankees, she also enjoyed her annual trips to Florida for baseball's Spring Training games. During her retirement years she spent a lot of her time staying active by reading, caring for her grandchildren and tending to her various gardening projects.

With cherished memories and deepest sorrows, Mom will be surely missed but will be impossible to be forgotten. We trust it is well with her soul and that she will eternally rest in peace.

Lovingly submitted,

The Family

Serenity Prayer

*GOD, grant me the Serenity
to accept the things I cannot change,
Courage to change the things
I can, and the Wisdom to know the difference.
Living one day at a time;
Enjoying one moment at a time;
Accepting hardship as the pathway to peace.
world as it is,
not as I would have it. Trusting that He will make all things right if I surrender to His Will; That I may be reasonably happy in this life, and supremely happy with Him forever in the next.
Amen*
