Obituary

Candis Evelyn McLean Carrington was born on May 26, 1927, to the late John and Sallie Minter McLean in Broadway, North Carolina. She was the ninth of thirteen siblings. Her nickname was "Candy".

Candis departed this life on Saturday, July 6, 2013 at East Orange General Hospital in East Orange, NJ.

Candis joined Cameron Grove AME Zion Church in Broadway at a very early age. She served as President of the Usher Board, and was always willing to pitch in and serve wherever needed.

After completing her high school education, she moved to East Orange, New Jersey to be with her sister, Annie R. Gaines. She joined St. Mark AME Church in 1949, where she served on the Stewardess Board, and in any other capacity her hands could find for her to do for over fifty years.

Candis also furthered her training by attending the Robert Walsh Business School of Newark, and Arlene King Business School of East Orange, NJ.

After her retirement from Madison Corp. of New Jersey, she continued to work with the Seniors at Bishop Taylor Manor of East Orange, NJ, where she resided until her recent illness.

Candis was predeceased by her brothers, Harvey L., Charles, Alfred F., Royal S., Harold E. and Theodore McLean.

She leaves to cherish her memory: five sisters, Annie R. Gaines of East Orange, NJ, Amelia Glenn of Rochester, NY, Esther McAuley (Thomas), Annie Mildred McIver and Lillie Lois Cotten of Broadway, NC; brother, Wallace O. McLean of Columbus, Ohio; goddaughter, Ayanna McLean Carter of Baltimore, MD; godson, Jamaal Francis of Florida; special nieces, Armelia Adams of Matawan, NJ and Shirley Charles of Newark, NJ; and a host of other nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

The Road To Eternity

*Life is but a stopping place,
A pause in what's to be,
A resting place along the road
To sweet Eternity.
We all have different journeys,
Different paths along the way,
We all were meant to learn something,
But never meant to stay.....*

*Our destination is a place far
Greater than we know,
For some, the journey's quicker,
For some, the journey's slow.
And when the journey finally ends,
We'll claim a great reward,
And find an everlasting peace,
Together with the Lord.*
