

When I'm Gone

Release me, let me go. I have so many things to see and do.
 You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears,
 Be happy that we had so many years.
 I gave you my love and you can only guess,
 How much you gave me in happiness.
 I thank you for the love you each have shown,
 But now it's time I travel on alone.
 So grieve a while for me,
 If grieve you must then let your grief be comforted by trust.
 Its only for a while that we must part,
 So bless the memories within your heart.
 I won't be far away, for life goes on,
 So, if you need me, call and I will come.
 Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near,
 And if you listen with your heart,
 You'll hear all my love around you soft and clear.
 And then, when you must come this way alone,
 I'll greet you with a smile and say,
 Welcome Home.

Acknowledgements

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
 Perhaps you sent a floral piece if so, we saw it there.
 Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
 Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
 Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.

Obituary

Marguerite Hatcher (nee Hall) was born on April 17, 1943 in Newark, New Jersey to the late James and Mary Lou Everett Hall. Marguerite entered into eternal rest peacefully on July 10, 2013 at St. Michael's Medical Center surrounded by her family.

Marguerite lived in Newark her entire life and was educated in the Newark Public School System. She forged her path as an assembly worker in various corporations over the course of her life.

Marguerite was married to the late McKinley Hatcher and was a devoted mom who dedicated her time and energy to raising her seven children. She often spent time with family and friends and frequently hosted card parties at her home. She loved music and was an avid dancer. Another one of her favorite past-times was traveling to various casinos.

Marguerite was a fun loving, outgoing, family orientated woman who enjoyed cooking Sunday dinner. When home relaxing, her favorite television channels were TNT and AMC. Although she was small in stature she had a big heart and a loving smile. Marguerite had sweet, tender loving spirit and brought joy to the lives of all who crossed her path.

She leaves cherished memories with her sons, Ronnie Hall (Shabazz), Joseph (Yusuf) Hall, the late Wayne Hall, Louis Manning, and Rick Hatcher; her daughters, the late Deborah Hall, and Shawanda Christian; and daughter-in-law, Darlene Hatcher; her siblings, James Hall, Jr., Mary Hall Ellis, the late Shirley Cobb, William Hall, and the late Eugene Hall; her sister-in-law, Alberta Hall; her brother-in-law, Leroy Ellis; her aunts, Ella Everett, Bessie Lewis and Geraldine Fields; her uncle, Robert Everett; her 30 grandchildren and 35 great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends. She will be especially missed by her longtime beloved companion William Reynolds.
