Remembering Fred

Fredia Beisrel Dixon was born on March 1, 1939 in Neptune, New Jersey, son of the late Henry Sr. and Beatrice Dixon.

He was known to all as “Fred,” “Freddy” and “Jack.” He attended the Roselle Public Schools and graduated from Abraham Clark High School in Roselle.

Fred entered into the United States Armed Forces on September 10, 1958 where he became a Parachute Jumper (Co B, 1st ABN, BG 325th Infantry, 82nd Airborne Division).

A self-employed mechanic, he operated Shims Auto Repair Shop in Linden and AZ Auto in Elizabeth. He was known as “the best mechanic” throughout the tri-state area.

While living in New Jersey he was member of Mt. Calvary United Church of God, Elizabeth under the leadership of Bishop Samuel McCrae Leak.

Fred was an outgoing and sociable person. He was an avid bowler who enjoyed bowling at Jersey Lanes.

Fredia Beisrel Dixon departed this life on Monday, July 8, 2013 at the age of 74 in Lawrenceville, Georgia where he relocated eight years ago.

He was predeceased by his sister, Beatrice Floyd.

His memory will be cherished and forever remembered by his loving children: Darnell, Benjamin, Raymond and Natasha Dixon; step-children: Chonté and Milton Simmons; 3 sisters: Henrietta Skipper of Rahway, New Jersey, Beatrice Floyd of Lakewood, New Jersey and Catherine Dixon of Irvington, New Jersey; 3 brothers, Henry Dixon, Jr. of Carteret, New Jersey, David Daniel Dixon (Nancy) of Toms River, New Jersey and Robert Lumpkin of Asbury Park, New Jersey; 22 grandchildren and 8 great-grandchildren; aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and a host of other relatives and friends.

I Could not Bear My Cross Alone

*I could not bear my cross alone
So weak and worn was I,
But Jesus came Himself to help
And soon my tears were dry.*

*It broke my heart to leave dear friends,
And loved ones I adore,
Although I knew, earth's sadness ends
At Heaven's golden door.*

*For this is a journey we all must take
No matter where or when,
Keep precious memories for my sake
Until we meet again*

Sorrowfully submitted,
The Family

Precious

Memories

Those We Loved Remain With Us

*Those we loved remain with us,
For love itself lives on.
Cherished memories never fade,
Because a loved one is gone.
Those we love can never be,
More than a thought apart.
For as long as there are memories,
They'll live on in our hearts.*

Acknowledgement

The family of Fred Dixon acknowledges with sincere appreciation every thought and act of kindness expressed to us during this our hour of bereavement. We will always keep you in our prayers. May God continue to richly bless you.
