

Asleep

*I've closed my eyes and fallen asleep,
So there's no reason for you to weep;
This is a debt we all must pay,
You will see me again someday.
I've endured pain and sometimes sorrow,
Now I don't have to worry about tomorrow.
But life for you must go on,
You must not worry because I'm gone.
You stood beside me all the way,
When I was down, you knew what to say ...
You always told me, "get some rest,"
Let me sleep now, I've done my best.
So please let me rest in peace,
The tears you're shedding soon will cease.
You'll soon realize this was meant to be,
I thank God because He came for me.*

-Author unknown

Acknowledgements

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece if so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.

Professional Services Provided By

COTTON FUNERAL SERVICE
130 Main Street
Orange, NJ
973-675-6400

COTTON-PARKER FUNERAL HOME
1025 Bergen Street
Newark, NJ
973-926-6400

COTTON-PARKER FUNERAL HOME
37 Clinton Avenue
Jersey City, NJ
201-433-1000

In Loving Memory of

Betty G. Warren

Sunrise
December 13, 1937

Sunset
July 16, 2013

Service
Saturday, July 20, 2013 - 10:00 a.m.

Christ The King
789 Ocean Avenue
Jersey City, New Jersey

Order of Service

- Reception and Blessing of the Body
- Placing of the Pall
- Opening Hymn..... Christ the King Choir
- Opening Prayer.....Rev. Stephen Giorno
- 1st Reading: Wisdom 3:1-9..... Kathleen Washington
Psalm 23 (sung)
- 2nd Reading: Romans 14:7-12.....Patricia Sebron
- Gospel: John 11:32-45 ..... Deacon Keith McKnight
- Homily.....Rev. Stephen Giorno
- Prayers of Petition ..... Deacon Keith McKnight
- Offertory Hymn..... Christ the King Choir
- Holy Communion
- Meditation Song
- Reading of the Obituary.....Yolanda Warren
- Final Prayer and Commendation.....Rev. Stephen Giorno
- Recessional Hymn .....Christ the King Choir

Entombment
 Holy Name Cemetery
 Jersey City, New Jersey

Obituary

On December 13th 1937 Herman and Nantexter Sebron welcomed into this world their first child, Betty Gean. Jersey City was home to Betty. She was educated by the public school system and received her high school diploma from Lincoln High School in January 1955. Most of her childhood was spent at her parent home on Virginia Avenue which she shared with her five sisters. It was in this home that Betty learned many of the life lessons that defined her life, how to be a strong, independent woman, if you wanted anything in this world you must earn it, and most importantly, protect and take care of your family.

Upon graduation from high school Betty went in search of a job. She found it as a worker in the Western Electric factory in Kearny, NJ. She spent her entire career at Western Electric/ATT slowly and diligently moved up in ATT working at various positions such as executive event planner and supervisor of communication networks. She ended her career at ATT in 1989.

Having a job meant Betty could do what she loved to do, shop for clothes and going out having a good time. It was during one of these outings that she met that tall lanky fellow from Staten Island who would become her husband, Ralph Warren, Jr. Ralph and Betty were married on July 11th, 1959. Their union produced two children Ann and Robert.

Everything she did she did with the sole purpose of providing for her children. But Betty did do one thing did for herself while she raised her children. She went to Bingo. Betty knew every bingo hall in Jersey City. Her children affectionately called her Bingo Betty.

With her children grown and on their own and an offer of early retirement being dangled in front of her what was Betty to do. The answer was Alyssa and Robert Jr., her grandchildren. They filled every waking moment of her retirement. Every Saturday Betty gathered up her grandchildren and together they shared another of her favorite activities – bowling. Betty loved to bowl. She was a member of the Monday Night Ladies League and also volunteered as bowling coach with the Anna Johnson Saturday Afternoon Coeds.

On July 16th, 2013 Betty heard Jesus call her number she called out “Bingo”, closed her eyes and entered eternal rest.

Betty is survived by her children Ann and Robert Sr., her grandchildren Alyssa and Robert Jr., her daughter-in-law, Yolanda, her great grandchild, Trevon, her sisters, Mary Setzer, Barbara Briggs, Patricia Sebron, Kathleen Washington, and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends.

*B
E
T
T
Y

G.

W
A
R
R
E
N*