Obituary

Nathaniel Clarence Robinson was the third child born to the union of Mary Lee Lemon and John Nathaniel Robinson on January 24, 1950. He departed this life on July 21, 2013 after a long term illness. He was educated in the New York City Public School system. From the married union of Nathaniel Clarence Robinson and Sharon Wade-Robinson, daughter Shanisa Karonda Robinson was born.

His life's work was that of a Custodian for the New York City Department of Education for thirty-five years. He worked the night shift setting up college classrooms for the students at Hunter College in Manhattan. He was a diligent worker and team player and everyone including some of the students and college professors knew him because of his friendly personality.

Nat was known to family and friends as a loving and caring person. Being around his closest friends and family meant everything to him. He had a deep and abiding love for his family and especially his daughter, Shanisa Karonda Robinson and her mother, Sharon Wade-Robinson.

He was preceded in death by his father, John Nathaniel Robinson, brother, Michael Barron Robinson, mother, Mary Lee Robinson, sister, Karen Josephine Robinson-Carter and brother, Wayne Bruce Robinson.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call*

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

My life's been full, I savored much.

*Good friends, good times,
a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
