Obituary

Clyde Orlando Ogbourne was born on September 13, 1959 in the district of Moneague, St. Anns, Jamaica. It was here that he spent his early childhood life with his mother: Joyce Ogbourne, Father: Kenneth Ogbourne, his only loving sister: Rosemarie Ogbourne and four brothers: Herald, Calvin, Earl and Howard Ogbourne, before relocating to New York City at the age of nineteen where he lived right up until his untimely death.

He devoted his time as a craftsman, working for the Paper Tube Industrial for 32 years here in New York. It should come as no surprise to many the passion he had for music and creativity for building and designing art. Although Clyde was very reserved, his colleagues had the utmost respect for him.

More than anything else that can be said of Clyde, he was considered a caring uncle and cousin, a loving partner to Joan Jolly and a devoted father to his son, Dillon Ogbourne. Clyde dedicated his life to being a remarkable man. We should not dwell on the loss of our dear friend, cousin, spouse, son, brother and father.

Today, let us celebrate his life and remember the remarkable things Clyde accomplished and the wonderful life he lived.
