The Obituary

On July 26, 2013, the heavy burden of the world was gently lifted from the shoulders of Raymond H. Williams and the angels of the heavenly host led him to eternal rest and peace. God embraced our beloved and beckoned him home to meet his preceded father and mother, Herbert Williams, Ethel Mae Williams and his brother, Reginald Williams.

Raymond H. Williams was born on August 1st 1944. He was born to Ethel Mae Williams and Herbert Williams in Portsmouth, Virginia where he received his education and started life. Raymond was the third of eight children. At an early age, Raymond moved to New York and quickly found this was a place to call home. He had a deep love for New York and experienced most of all that New York had to offer. Raymond entered the nation of Islam as a young “FOI” which set the course of his faith; he was a plumber by trade. Raymond was a man that loved life and lived his life to the fullest.

Raymond H. Williams was a loving son, brother, husband, father and friend. He is survived by his: wife, Beverly Williams; brothers, sisters, and seven children and step children, Tony Williams, Theresa Cadet, Todd Williams, Shantelle Brown, Maylee Bellamy, Raymona Williams, and Rahim Williams. He also leaves to mourn: three sisters, Audrey Richardson (Charles Richardson), Shirley Johnson (William Johnson) and Doris Williams; four brothers, Herbert Brown (Bertha Brown), Glenwood Williams, Melvin Williams and Najee Muhammad; aunt, Edna Cassell; He had sixteen grandchildren and four great grandchildren; as well as a host of cousins, friends, and brothers in the name of Allah.

Raymond crossed many paths and affected the lives of so many people. He made an imprint on mostly everyone who knew him. We all have a story to tell about how Raymond impacted our lives. There is a void in all of our hearts now that he is gone, but he will forever be in our thoughts and prayers and we'll never forget the wonderful person he was and his love of laughter. He was loved and will surely be missed. He may be gone but he will never be forgotten.

Rest in Peace
Raymond H. Williams
