"The Day God Took You From Us"

It was the shocking news, that brought tears to my eyes. And you made me remember what it was like to cry. On that dreadful day. God decided it was your time, your time to go, so He took your life away. And everyone felt the pain, the pain that you had been suffering for so long. It's harder than I ever thought life could be without you. So the family will always think of you and we will always know that you'll be looking down on us keeping us safe making sure everything goes okay in our lives. Making sure we live a GREAT LIFE like you did until the day our God decided that it was your time to go. We cried as the rain fell that day. Little drops of rain turned into pouring rain. Whispers of pain, tears of lost in the days gone by. I hope your watching while we're standing over your casket to see you lying there cold faced with the look of happiness on your face dang sexy Dre knowing that we are all here to show you how much we care. I love you no matter how much you think we didn't care. But today as we gather around your cold faced body proves uncle D we care. We all miss you and want you to come back home uncle it's me your O-Ball and all your family we need you here in our lives.
