Obituary

Marlon Lomax Morris was born in New York City on January 23, 1976 and was the fifth child of Gail and John Morris.

He attended his neighborhood Public School 200, Junior High Public School 195 and Dr. Martin Luther King High School where he graduated in the mid 90's. After high school, Marlon began his career of arranging several party promotions and several of his own business ventures in the private entertainment industry.

Marlon enjoyed, basketball, vacations, photography and loved to party. He was adored by his family and many friends who nicknamed him "PooBear".

Marlon suddenly passed away peacefully in his home at the age of thirty-seven.

He is survived by: his mother, Gail Morris; his brothers, Christopher, Gregory and John; his sisters, Chanene and Kanika; his nephews, Devon, Jaden, Azahn and Anthony; his nieces, Azja, Tyianna and Ashley Tamesha; his aunt, Marilyn and uncle, Bubba; and a host of cousins and extended family members.

Marlon was a wonderful and fun, loving person who will be cherished and missed.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
