Obituary

Shaaliver V. Douse-Farrar (Douce) was born on October 10, 1998, at 11:23 p.m. to Shanise Farrar and Oliver V. Douce. Shaaliver Farrar was an easy going and loving child who grew up under the watchful eye of a loving mother who doted on him.

He was a Headstart baby who attended La Peninsula, P.S. 55, Harriet Tubman Charter School, J.H.S. 186, Alfred E. Smith High School and The School of Law and Finance at Kennedy High School. At each of these schools, he would be acknowledged and received many achievement awards.

Shaaliver loved basketball and played each and every time he got a chance. He was deeply loved by his friends whom he had so many. He was a favorite of his neighbors who had watched him grow from a small child. He faced some challenges like many other inner-city youths, but he was a good son. He was excited about his first job as a youth worker at Claremont Neighborhood Centers, Inc.

He departed this life on Sunday, August 4, 2013 at the age of fourteen. He leaves to deeply mourn his passing, his mother, Shanise Farrar; his father, Oliver Douce; brothers, Jashua Crane, James Baker, Trevone Foster (Spanky), Troy and El John Todd; his sisters, Olivia Douce, Jasmine Crane, Perelina Douce and Bobey Soto; great uncles, Carlton and Curtis Wright, Louis (Lukie) Farrar and Atuwae Ashante; two aunts, Quwana Barcene and Angel Hughes, all of the Bronx, New York; and a host of cousins, family, neighbors and friends. Among his many close and special friends were Jaquan, Brandon and Johnathan. Also of note, he will be missed by Bradley Austin, his mother's fiancé.

Lonely Is The Home Without You

*Lonely is the home without you,
Life to us is not the same;
All the world would be like Heaven,
If we could have you back again.
A light from our household gone,
A voice we loved is still,
A place is vacant in our home
That never can be filled.
May the God of Love and Mercy,
Care our loved one who is gone,
And bless with consolation,
Those left to carry on.
The happy hours we once enjoyed,
How sweet their memory still
But death has left a vacant place,
This world can never fill.
How dearly we loved you,
And prayed you might live,
But Jesus just beckoned,
And we had to give.
God gave us strength to bear it,
And courage to fight the blow,
What it has meant to lose you,
God alone will ever know.*
