Obituary

Prince Albert House, Jr. son of the late Prince and Doris House, was born in Brooklyn, New York on March 22, 1961. He departed this life on August 6, 2013 in the Mount Sinai Hospital in New York City. Prince was known by family members as “Pop” or “Poppa”.

He attended New York City Public School in Kings County; where he then attended Boys & Girls High school where he became an outstanding athlete in basketball. While attending Boys & Girls High school he received many awards, trophies and scholarships for his great athletic accomplishments. He pursued a career as a carpenter/electrician for many years with Bobby Mays at Precision Remodeling where he gained his creative skill set for construction, design and renovating. Barbecuing was his greatest joy. He enjoyed gathering family members for his famous barbeques. If the sun was shining, he was there barbecuing.

He is survived by his fiancée Michele Branham aka “Bookie” of New York City, his daughter Jessica Bolus of Georgia and his sister Rosalyn Patricia House of North Carolina. He also had a special bond with his cousin Scharnell Douglas, who lived with him and cared for him when he became ill. She was his angel. He is also survived by a several nieces, aunts, uncles, cousins and nephew Ryan Prince House.

Prince House was a hardworking, compassionate, and loving individual who will be greatly missed.

The Lord Is My Shepherd

A Psalm of David (Psalm 23-Kings James Version)

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me besides the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
