

Psalms 139:14-18

I will praise You, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made;

Marvelous are Your works,

And that my soul knows very well.

My frame was not hidden from You,

When I was made in secret,

And skillfully wrought in the lowest parts of the earth.

Your eyes saw my substance, being yet unformed.

And in Your book they all were written,

The days fashioned for me,

When as yet there were none of them.

How precious also are Your thoughts to me, O God!

How great is the sum of them!

If I should count them, they would be more in number than the sand;

When I awake, I am still with You.

Acknowledgements

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece if so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.

Obituary

On August 7, 2013 at 2:30 AM, Marcel passed away after one year battle with complicated high blood pressure and diabetes; while being attended by familiar staff members at Canterbury Nursing Home in Cedar Grove, NJ. Marcel was 59 years old.

Marcel was born in the town of Desdunes in Haiti on May 1st, 1954. He was the second child of Yvette Philippe and the deceased St Armand Odige. He was educated in the local school in Desdunes. He continued his education in The United States as an autodidact.

Marcel had a great sense of humor which explains the admiration of most people tempered by wisdom and compassion for all who really knew him. He enjoyed playing dominos with his friends. Marcel used to go out of his way to help people and sometimes forget about his personal interest. Many of his friends succeeded in life due to his contributions and advices.

Marcel was a hard worker and a very entrepreneur-minded. He spent a few years in manufacturing. Then, he decided to build his own business but mostly as a philanthropist. Many people witnessed his generosity towards them. He was a devoted member of Eglise Baptiste de la Nouvelle Jerusalem. We hope Marcel had a good relationship with God and when the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with trump of God: and the dead in Christ including Marcel shall rise.

Marcel was preceded in death by: his father, St Armand Odige; his brothers, Iltaire Odige and Hubert Odige; his sister: Erzula Odige; his nephews: Carlos Cadet, and Paul-Frantz Audige. He leaves to cherish his memory: his son, Marckson Odige; his mother and friend, Yvette Philippe Odige; his brothers, sisters, nephews, nieces, uncles, aunts, cousins, and friends.
