Obituary

Susie Kidd Douglas sixty-two of Trenton, NJ died on Monday, August 19, 2013 at her home. Born in Princeton, NJ and she graduated from Lawrence High School class of 1968, in Lawrenceville, NJ.

She is survived by her mother, Ida Kidd, two brothers, Richard Kidd, Jr. (Elizabeth) and Calvin Kidd (Susan) and her father, the late Richard Kidd, Sr. Susie is also survived by her three children, David Douglas of Trenton, NJ, Rev. Tina Douglas of Penndel, PA and Denise Douglas of Lawrenceville, NJ. She is the grandmother of Michael Parker, Shirley Brown, Shaneatha and Donque Douglas, Augustas Powell, Jr., Judirah Blake and the late Ebony Howell. She is the great grandmother of six great grands. Susie is also survived by a special aunt, Betty Brown.

Susie was employed by the State of New Jersey as a field monitor for civil service testing until 1973. After that she served as a successful seamstress for many years and then a home health aide. Susie loved her family and enjoyed baking cakes and biscuits. Additionally, she loved reading and promoting literacy, traveling with her family, sewing and shopping for her children and her all time favorite was listening to Gospel stations on the radio. Susie was known to many as "Susie Q" and was know by her childhood friends as "Sissy". Back in the day "Sissy" was a phenomenal cheerleader and cheered with pride for the Lawrenceville High School Cheerleading Squad.

Mom Forever Lives

Yesterday is history, tomorrow is a mystery, today is a gift of God which is why we call it the present. "Live as if you were to die tomorrow. Learn as if you were to live forever. When one door of happiness closes, another opens, but often we look so long at the closed door that we do not see the one which has opened for us. Be the change that you wish to see in the world" Future
